50X1-HUM

6. The People's Municipal Assembly is located near the center of the city; the food commissariat is located in the nearby Jewish school. The district court is in the Palace of Justice building in the northwest quarter. Civilian and militia headquarters are located near the center of the city and uniformed guards are stationed at various posts throughout the city. There are no police patrols during the day; at night trusted Party members assist the various militia groups in patrolling the city.
7. A total of 1,300-1,500 youths between the ages of 15 and 18 attend the following schools:
 - a. Men's lycee, located on Tsar Osvoboditel Avenue opposite the reading center;
 - b. Men's agricultural lycee, located in the southern part of the city on Tsar Osvoboditel Avenue, approximately half way between the city center and the railroad station;
 - c. Men's night art school, located in the former Jewish school; and
 - d. Girl's lycee, located in the west side of the central square.
8. The reading center, theater, cinema, and lecture halls are located in the 2-story r-shaped Vidolina building which occupies a complete block on Tsar Osvoboditel Avenue.
9. Pazardzhik's 15-man theater group, composed of graduates of the Sofia Theatrical School, presents five or six Communist plays a year and tours the neighboring villages. A 35-40 voice choral group of lycee teachers and lycee graduates gives concerts frequently.
10. Pazardzhik has two fields for soccer and bicycle racing; each can accommodate 2,000 spectators. The city has two soccer clubs which compete with each other and with other cities and engage in a total of approximately 15 matches per season. Only factory workers are allowed to join the sports clubs.
11. The Communist Party has 100 members in Pazardzhik; its club is located on Tsar Osvoboditel Avenue. There are 15-18 people in the higher Party organs, including two in each of the city quarters. The District Communist Party Committee assembles the eight branch chairmen and presents them with materials to disseminate to the people of their respective quarters.
12. There are five loudspeakers throughout the city which are connected with the radio located in the Municipal building.
13. Gara Pazardzhik, the city's railroad station, is located two kilometers south of the city center. The station is a 2-story yellow building, 25 x 10 meters in size, which faces south. There are six tracks in the station area. Pazardzhik is linked to Plovdiv and Sofia by a normal-gauge line and with the summer resort town of Chepino in the Rhodopes by a narrow-gauge line.
14. Pazardzhik receives its electricity from the Vicha Electric Power Plant located in Krichim village in the Plovdiv district.

15. The city's four inter-urban bus lines are:

- a. Pazardzhik-Peshtera;
- b. Pazardzhik-Lesichevo;
- c. Pazardzhik-Panagyurishte; and
- d. Pazardzhik-Vetren.

16. Construction was under way on the flat terrain six kilometers west of Pazardzhik. Unauthorized personnel were not allowed to enter the construction area or to approach close enough to estimate the type and amount of construction being done. Soldiers of 27 Infantry Regiment guarded the area, but actual construction was being done by civilian personnel.
